Lead a small group

How to Make the Best Men’s Small Group

Jesus used a small group to create momentum. Jesus launched His divine plan to redeem mankind by making disciples out of a small group. Impressive. The question, of course, is why would he do that? Why a small group? And how can we make your best men’s small group?

From Ho-Hum Small Groups to Life-Changing Relationships

We’re wired for small groups. So how can we take them from bastions of boredom and obligatory spiritual growth activity to exciting opportunities to develop true, intentional, spiritual friendships? Here are four ways to get out of a rut.

Sharing Your Testimony: The Power of Story in Ministry

You want men to experience deep faith and authentic relationships. Giving them the opportunity to tell their stories is one of the most powerful practices your ministry can implement. Why? Sharing our testimonies connects us in three ways.

Why Fraternities Thrive and Men’s Ministries Don’t

What drew me to my fraternity was that I found something there that I couldn’t find in my student ministry group: brotherhood. Here are 10 lessons my fraternity taught me that should change the way we think about men’s discipleship.

Mentor someone or start a mentoring program

The Christian Man Mentoring Experience

The Christian Man Mentoring Experience takes the guesswork out of the mentoring process so that you can focus on what matters most: becoming the man God has created you to be and helping someone else do the same. This 12-week mentoring experience is based on The Christian Man book by Patrick Morley and used with a downloadable Coaching Guide.

Overcoming Obstacles in Men's Ministry

We surveyed hundreds of men's ministry leaders and pastors around the country about their ministry needs, challenges, and successes. Once we collected all the responses, two needs rose to the top of the list: how to get more men engaged in spiritual growth and relationships, and how to have a stronger leadership team.

3 Lessons from the Coach's Playbook

Our ministry is forever indebted to a men's leader called "Coach K." As we like to say, discipleship changes everything, and he centered his life on that truth. We know his legacy lives on in the men transformed by these three powerful lessons.

Is the Reach of Your Ministry Wide and Deep?

Disciple men at church through an event and small groups

3 Secret Ingredients to Your Best Men’s Event

Churches don't set out to hold events to check off a box on the ministry calendar. But without a plan to capture the momentum created by the event, the impact is often short term. Here's a plan to ensure your next men's event is your best men's event—and impacts men long after!

Grow in my faith

The Goal of Self-Reflection

Are you on the run? You're in good company. Most of us face tremendous pressure. The problem is we make mistakes under pressure. And when we're running, it becomes harder and harder to stop for self-reflection to take stock of our lives.

How to Love God More Deeply

We can't love God with intensity because we are good or strong. We love God because He reached His loving hand down into the slough of human progress and pain to capture our souls through the grace of Christ.

How to Discover Your Personal Ministry

God's plan is for every follower of Christ to have a personal ministry, or "good works" that He has prepared for us to do. Most Christian men I've met have it in their hearts to serve God. They just need someone to show them HOW.

Are You a Cultural Christian?

In our hurried, task-driven lives, we too often trade reflection for production. We want everything on our own terms, and God is no exception. Here are signs you've bought into a counterfeit Christianity and become a cultural Christian.

The Solution to Stuck

As Christians, we share the same, one-size-fits-all goal: to abide in Christ, to love others as Christ loved us, and to bear fruit. So why do so many of us feel stuck right now? And could there also be a one-size-fits-all solution?

Grow as a husband or father

The Strongest Man in the World

There is no neutrality when a man remembers his father. For better or worse, a father has incredible influence. Dads, here are four ways to bless your children that can create a completely different trajectory in their lives.

Spiritual Leadership: The Prophet, Priest, and King

For a lot of men, there are few terms as confusing or intimidating as when we're told to be a "spiritual leader." What does it even mean or look like on a daily basis? We want to demystify this concept so that you can start leading today!

Family As Your First Ministry

Whether you're looking for a better work/life balance, wondering how to spiritually lead your family, or struggling relationally at home, a good starting point is recognizing that if you have a family, your family is your first ministry.

Resurrecting Family Devotions

I have always viewed family devotions as a requirement of all good Christian dads, and if I wasn't doing anything, I felt guilty. But mere obligation is a poor motivator. Passion, on the other hand, drives us to overcome obstacles.

Refocus my heart and mind on Christ

The Voice of the Holy Spirit

In this series, we're exploring the voices in your mind fighting for control of the conversation: the voice of the world, the flesh, and the devil. Now we come to the one that is exponentially more powerful than the first three combined—the voice of the Holy Spirit.

Division in the Body of Christ

Jesus destroyed the division between Jew and Gentile. But today, many of us are rebuilding a dividing wall of hostility, brick by brick. In levying new regulations on one another, we sacrifice peace, unity, and wisdom from above. What's a better way?

Mary, Martha, and Men's Discipleship

Men are running to keep up with the demands of a culture that requires more energy than they have to give, and ministry leaders are no exception. In a simple story of two sisters named Mary and Martha, we find a better way—one that transforms everything.

The Heartbeat of a Citizen

The world is not alright, but the world is also not our home. We are citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven. And the attitudes of our hearts reveal the citizenship of our souls.

What Really Matters

We are bombarded with crises, information, and questions. Because of this, we feel compelled to take a side or have an opinion. Yet we rarely stop to consider whether the issue is something that God's calling us to engage—or if He is, how. How do we focus on what really matters?

What's My Motivation?

Life moves quickly, sweeping us up along with it if we don't stop long enough to consider the deeper questions behind why we do what we do. This failure to examine what is motivating us has the power to throw our lives wildly off course.

From all of us at Man in the Mirror, we pray this year is full of growth, joy, and hope in Jesus Christ, who is the same yesterday and today and forever (Hebrews 13:8).
