PROGRAM 2021 FOR CHILDREN'S CHURCH

52 Sundays

By Raquel Ramos Torres

Translated from Spanish by Monte Cyr

The sub-theme in 2021 directs us as children's leaders to have the greatest impact possible and to invest all our resources in them. We have to prepare the way that gives our children a healthy spiritual heritage and the tools to live by surrendering and serving God and others, thus transforming their present and future.

Serving means being sensitive to the needs of others and doing what you can to meet those needs. God desires to raise up a new generation to serve, who cares for the underprivileged and the little ones, who are just and treat others with justice, whose good deeds abound like a mighty river. As their mentors, we are an important part of this task: linking faith to children's daily lives through holistic care that leads them to live with identity and integrity.

This year (if COVID 19 allows it), we are ending the four-year term whose motto is "The Invested Life" with biblical basis in 2 Timothy 2:2. I wish that in some way you have totally invested your life in children, as a factor of hope, and that the gains obtained are very satisfactory: consecrated children, new children, saved children, empowered children, fully happy children, children who apply the Biblical truths to their daily lives, and children in service, because then, you have helped produce the biggest and best dividends (teens, youth, and spiritually fulfilled adults), a lasting legacy!

I fervently pray that these four years of investment will raise up a generation that knows God, is intimate with him, listens to his voice, and does his will.

Thank you for your dedication ... thank you for accompanying them ... thank you for investing yourself, your gifts and resources ... Thank you for making children first !!!

With love and admiration,

Raquel Ramos T.

Program for Children's Church 2021 – SDMI, Mesoamerica Region

The purpose of the Children's Church is "to help children have their own worship, enjoy it and be able to worship and listen to the Word with children of their age, where it is explained to them at their level why we do what we do in worship."

This is a suggested program for working with the Children's Church. Please remember to review the Children's Church Manual to organize it properly starting with the first Sunday of the year.

The suggested themes for each Sunday have been selected to emphasize the annual sub-theme for 2021:

The Life Invested Through Service - 2 Timothy 2: 2

Don't overlook some special days of the Christian Calendar, such as: Palm Sunday, Easter, Pentecost, and Christmas. We understand that celebrating these special days at Children's Church will enrich the children's worship experience of God.

These monthly emphases are geared toward guiding children in different aspects of discipleship and the life of church service. You can use them by focusing on them on the Sunday we suggest, but you can also do related activities any Sunday of the month. The purpose is that through these emphases, children can be discipled as they grow, being and feeling part of the Church.

Remember that you are the pastor of the children's church and they are your flock. Prepare each "sermon" and program with the same heart of Jesus.

MISSIONS FOR CHILDREN

- Contact the President of Nazarene Missions International (NMI) of your local church to acquire the Missionary Study Guide for Children, and work on the missionary lesson and emphasis each month, on Sunday as determined as a church.
- In addition, you can use the mission books for children, and thus develop in them a greater appreciation for missions and an openness to hearing the voice of God to a missionary call.
- You can assign a service activity during the week or month for the children to do, either individually, in pairs, or together with other children or with adults.

Recommendations for Children's Church

Remember that Children's Church is not another Sunday School class.

- Read the Children's Church Manual as a resource to develop a special time each Sunday, involve the children in worship, and guide them to participate in all aspects and emphasis of the Church of the Nazarene.
- Suggested Hymn of the Month: In addition to the songs of praise and worship used in the Children's Church, we suggest each month a hymn from our hymnal for worship. It offers the new generation the opportunity to learn about the musical and theological heritage that the church has proclaimed for years.
- It is important to give an explanation of the vocabulary used in each hymn and song that is taught and that everything we teach and sing is understandable to the children.
- Ask the Pastor of the church to administer the Lord's Supper in Children's Church. It would be good if this Sacrament was provided to the children once every three months, or every month if possible, or on the day that the whole church celebrates Communion.
- Provide a time for the Pastor to share his testimony with the children.
- Engage adults to share their faithful testimony experiences with the children.
- Involve the children in church prayer and worship times by leading, reciting what they have learned, praying, etc.
- Prepare your sermon using the biblical quotes from the program and enrich it with experiences or illustrations that motivate and attract your children. Pray for your flock and always remember to invite them to receive Jesus into their life.

May God use your life and ministry at his service, to bless the lives of the children in our Churches, and that many more can be reached for Christ.

For example, they could make their brother or sister's bed and leave a heart on the pillow. They could help their teacher and leave a heart on the desk. They could clean some area of the church and leave a heart. Ask the children to report to you next week about their feelings about serving someone in secret.*
- Give each child a "Gift Certificate" to give to someone else. They can make a present using their talents and do something for someone else. It could be baking a cake, mowing the grass, or taking care of their little brother. Think about what you can do and who you can do it for, and then write the certificate. (See Annex).

- Emphasize that our offering is a gift of love, that we worship God with it, and that there is joy in giving when it is done willingly.
- Ask: What can we offer to God besides money? Giving our time and service is also giving. Is there something we can do as a group as a service to the Lord? Listen to their ideas (make decorations, help with the offering baskets or empty the trash cans, etc.).
- Suggest giving generously and showing our love for Jesus by helping others. When we give a gift to a friend or our parents, what are we showing them? How can you show love to Jesus and others? Write a poem (See Annex), allow them to read it and say who gave with joy.

2. To my friends
3. In my Church
4. To my neighbors
5. In my neighborhood
6. At my school
7. To the forgotten

Garbage Walk: The first two chapters of the Bible share how God created the world, declare that it is good, and challenge humanity to care for it. Children can serve by helping to care for the earth, even with something as simple as picking up trash from the floor. Find an area in your city or neighborhood that needs maintenance, such as a public park or alley. Give your children a plastic glove and a garbage bag, walk together and pick up the garbage you find. Pray for the people or businesses you see in the area. Discuss the experience when you are done, and include the reading of Genesis 1 and 2.

Serving requires humility: Note how Jesus teaches that serving God requires the kind of humility that is shown in washing the feet of another. Handing out a small hand towel and marker, invite the children to write on it some ways God has served them through others. Then encourage them to use the other side to write down some ways they will serve God by serving others at home, their friends at school, an older person in their neighborhood, etc.

Non-profit garage sale: Help the child see that we are surrounded by many people who have a need for things that we take for granted, such as food, clothes or money. Check out Luke 12:33 where Jesus taught about selling your things to take care of others, and organize a garage sale as a family or church where all the money you earn will be donated instead of keeping it. Put a box near your cash box with a sign that says "Food Donations" and another that says "Clothing Donations." Invite your clients to come back and join in blessing others. Decide which local ministry you will help with your effort, or look for people in your neighborhood who will be blessed with what you have done.

Program for Children's Church 2021 – SDMI, Mesoamerica Region

FEBRUARY

Friends serving friends: Talk to your children about how their friends may need help or attention in some area of their life. Imagine ways you could help or take care of those needs, for example help a classmate in a subject or make sure they are not alone at recess, invite them to your house for popcorn, share your lunch or your dessert, defend them if they are being picked on, etc.. Help them understand what it means to serve God by serving others.

MARCH

Sermon Outline: My Family, My Blessing.

- God cares a lot about families
- His greatest desire is to pour out blessings on your entire family.
- They are a family that Jesus loved very much.
- We will only speak of the siblings of the family, the Scripture doesn't mention the parents.
- God used all three, as he will use you today.
- If you serve and help, don't seek to be rewarded, God will do it. Your family is your blessing, they are the opportunity you have to serve.
- Ask God for forgiveness for fighting or criticizing your brother or sister and for wanting them to be the same as you, forgive your siblings and your parents if you have felt that they treated you unfairly.
- Serve your family with love and stop just wanting to receive and receive and never give.

Sermon Outline: My Place of Blessing in My Family.

- Families are very blessed when each part of the family takes its rightful place within it.
- Each member recognizes his talents and puts them to serve in favor of the family, without lawsuits, without waiting for the other to do the same.
- Recognize their weaknesses or disabilities and let no one take advantage of you.
- Like Martha, do what you do best: unite the family by serving them. Like Martha, learn that serving is loving, it is worshiping.
- Like Mary, be a worshiper in the presence of Jesus, pray, praise and intercede for your family, the church and the city; your priority is to serve when you take care of your family.
- Like Lazarus, preach Jesus and be a witness for Him.
- Honor your parents and recognize all the good they give you.
- Let's pray that God helps all members of your family to be strengthened by the Holy Spirit, that the whole family will know the love of Christ, and that we can receive much more abundantly than we ask or understand.
