BULGARIA

In the midst of widespread conflict and mutual suspicion between Roma children and their Bulgarian neighbors, a local teacher proposed a unique solution to Nazarene Compassionate Ministries worker Zhana—start a local drama club. Though the first few meetings were contentious, the two generations began a healing process that led to mutual support and love spreading outward into the entire village. There is unity and healing when people come together as one body under the Lord of all.

WORLD EVANGELISM FUND EASTER OFFERING

16 April 2017

Prompted by a pastor's passion and the voice of God, Tres de Majo Church of the Nazarene in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, converted classrooms into an indoor soccer field. Just three years into the ministry, the Gospel is presented to more than 160 youth who were beyond the reach of the church, as they lace up their shoes every week and play soccer where walls once stood. Now, the church leadership in Honduras plans to replicate Pastor Christian Juarez's ground-breaking ministry in a concerted effort to reach the youth of their country for the Lord of all.

SYRIA

As thousands of refugees flee civil war in Syria, God is at work among them. While many of the refugees have physical needs, most of them simply want to be treated with love and dignity. Chris Lewis was reminded of this fact when a family of refugees invited him to share a meal with them while they waited for permission to cross the border between Croatia and Slovenia. Many of the refugees are disillusioned, running away from a militant version of their religion, and are ripe for the Gospel. Others are Christian brothers and sisters who need love, prayers and support. All of them are fellow humans in need of the comfort of a loving God, the

When you have nothing,
God becomes your everything.
Pastor Jimmy De Gouveia and the San Diego (Venezuela) Church of the Nazarene discovered this to be true when they sensed God leading them to plant a new work in Caracas, Venezuela's largest city. Rather than attempting to grow one large church, DeGouveia nurtured a culture of church planting. In the past four years, the congregation planted four missions meeting in homes and involving 400 regular attendees. Through these church plants and other programs, the Church of the Nazarene in Venezuela is impacting the people of Caracas for the Lord of all.
