“We are not called to serve from time to time, but to live serving”

—Pope Francis.

Isn't it amazing that one never fails to have opportunities to serve? There will always be a need that calls us to do good. Serving implies thinking about the needs of others. To do this, we need to be totally available, to surrender without calculating the benefits. God calls us to live a life of service with an open, generous, compassionate heart, giving not a percentage of our resources, but all. Let's imitate Jesus, who became a servant and invested his life, out of love for you and me.

For a life of Service,

Raquel Ramos

SDMI MONTHLY EMPHASIS CALENDAR

JANUARY: EDUCATION

Theme: What Does Service Mean

Bible Verse: "This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone." Titus 3:8

Purpose: That SDMI workers learn about a life of service and seek new ways of serving and helping those in need.

SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES:

- ☐ Meet with all the SDMI workers to learn about and discuss the Church Manual statements and the document entitled SDMI Mission, Vision, Purposes and Strategies (located in the Discipleship Ministries Resources Folder) about the work of SDMI, making everyone aware of the Mission, Vision, Purposes and local Strategies.
- ☐ Use points B and D of the purpose of SDMI to practice a life of service in your communities, towns or neighborhoods.
- ☐ Develop strategies for the proper functioning of the SDMI emphasis.
- ☐ Teach the laity how to form small discipleship groups at home.
- ☐ Train ushers with gifts of service and hospitality: take note of the names, addresses, and phone numbers of people who can be served in your neighborhood or community.
- ☐ Form with your leaders a search and visitation group for the unreached in your community or neighborhood

FEBRUARY: MARRIED COUPLES

Theme: The Marriage-Team

Bible Verse: “You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love.” Galatians 5:13

Purpose: Encourage married couples in the church to help other married couples in need (nurturing, financial, marital relationship, hope, illness, etc.), especially the unreached.

SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES:

- ☐ Hold two or three ministry events (Marriage Ministries), which are aimed at people in need in your community (dinner, breakfast, movie, coffee and dessert afternoon, games, counseling, conference).
- ☐ Offer various classes for parents dedicated to helping parents of young children, of disabled children, of adolescents, etc.
- ☐ Invite unsaved couples to these special activities so they can observe, feel loved, and sense unity and mutual concern through fellowship.
- ☐ Using WhatsApp, E-mail, Messenger, Facebook, etc., send your unconverted friends and acquaintances in your neighborhood or community advice, devotionals, reflections, songs, images, etc. that will encourage them and draw them closer to the church community and improve their married life.
- ☐ Form a counseling team to pray for and assist in the restoration of marriages and families, to help those in confused or wrong relationships, including those with wounds from separation or divorce, and offer this resource to anyone desiring to mend their marriage, whether saved or unsaved.
- ☐ Make small cards of love and/or encouragement and take them to the couples in your neighborhood, reminding them that the church loves them and wants to help them.

SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES:

- ☐ That each member of the family finds a way to help within their home, blessing their family through their service.
- ☐ During this month, each family of the Church helps someone without a family or who has no family locally by adopting/inviting them to be part of their family.
- ☐ Encourage each family to have a family altar or time of worship, inviting a family in need and witnessing to unreached members of their own family.
- ☐ Encourage each family to develop a service project where they can pray for someone in need, and help them materially, physically and / or spiritually (repair a roof, visit the sick, make a card for an elderly person, distribute evangelistic brochures in the park, paint a wall, run errands or work for an elderly person, babysit for free, help someone in need, share recordings (audio and/or video) of songs or an encouraging message by your favorite pastor or a special reflection, etc.
